2025 WHOLESALÉ CATALOG

Meet the Owner

Danielle Lehoux (pronounced “Lehoo”) is a Maine native with deep roots (7 generations strong) and an enduring love for nature and the beauty of her home state. Growing up on the coast of southern Maine, she was always drawn to creative expression, spending hours sketching, painting, and experimenting with various artistic mediums.

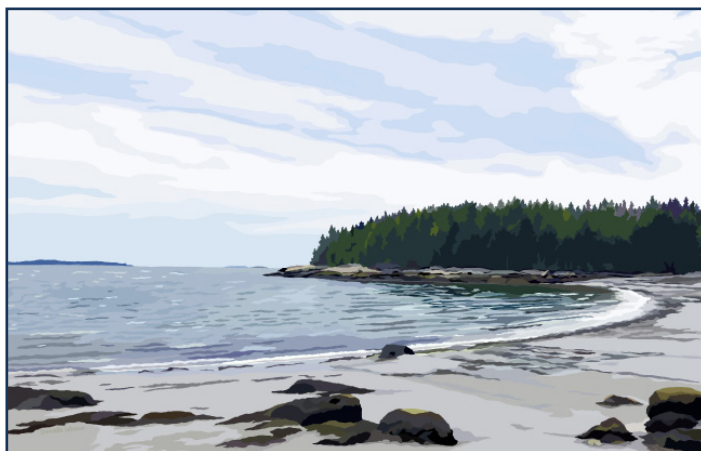

Inspired by the bold simplicity of vintage “See America” posters, Danielle developed her signature style creating graphic artwork rich in color and nostalgia. Using a digital stylus as her “paintbrush” and a touch screen as her “canvas,” she layers shapes and swatches of color to create vibrant scenes that celebrate coastal landscapes, wildlife, and beloved landmarks. Birds and lighthouses remain among her favorite subjects, reflecting her deep connection to Maine’s natural beauty.

Pieces often start out as a rough sketch before coming to life. The result is artwork that evokes a sense of place, memory, and joy—designed to make a meaningful connection with those who experience it.

About Lehoux Art

Founded in 2015 and nestled in the charming coastal town of Wells, Maine, Lehoux Art brings vibrant artistry to life through a distinctive collection of art prints, cards, souvenirs, and home decor products.

Inspired by the beauty of iconic landmarks, tranquil coastal vistas, and the charm of wildlife and beloved birds, Danielle Lehoux’s signature graphic art style infuses every piece with warmth, nostalgia, and joy.
